

CREATIVE WRITING CONTEST

Northeast Philadelphia High School Students:
Want to win a scholarship to Holy Family University* and an iPad, or a gift certificate to a local business?

The Northeast Philadelphia Hall of Fame is sponsoring a creative writing contest. Submit a written poem, a rap, a song lyric, or other creative writing piece of any length on the theme:

“What Makes Northeast Philadelphia Special?”

*Your piece must be in written form and non-narrative (not an essay or story).
It can be any length, from a haiku to a long song or rap.*

Entries should be in MS Word Format and submitted to:

lrotoli@holyfamily.edu

By 11:59pm October 3, 2016

Eligibility:

The contest is open to all Northeast Philadelphia high school students. All submissions become property of the Northeast Philadelphia Hall of Fame.

Prizes:

*Grand Prize is a $2,000 scholarship to Holy Family University (acceptance required, non-transferable) and an iPad. Honorable mention prizes include gift certificates to local businesses for students and for the teacher with the most students entering the contest.
